CHRISTIAN ENDORSED BY PRESIDENT OF HOME SCHOOL COALITION AND 3 'CONCERNED WOMEN'

CENTER, TX - Today Railroad Commission candidate Wayne Christian announced the endorsement of Tim Lambert (Home School Coalition, President), Michelle Smith (Concerned Women for America, State Director), Carol Everett (Heidi Group, Founder & President; Pro-Life Activist) and Ann Hettinger (Concerned Women for America, Former State Director).

“It is an honor to have the support of such a dedicated group of conservative activists that I have fought beside for the State of Texas,” said Christian. “Our race to increase oil and gas production, stop Federal overreach and preserve the ‘Texas Miracle’ resonates with conservatives and grassroots leaders across the state. Momentum is on our side, and we will win this race if conservatives stick together.”

“Wayne Christian is exactly the person we need to send to the Texas Railroad Commission,” said Tim Lambert, President of the Texas Homeschool Coalition. “I’ve known Wayne for a long time, and in his 14 years in the Texas House, Wayne not only served as Vice-Chair of Regulated Industries, and as a member of the Energy Committee, but also stood time and again for the conservative values Texans hold dear.”

“Wayne has proven time and time again that he will fight for what is right, even if it is unpopular,” said Michelle Smith, State Director of Concerned Women for America. “Texas needs more statesmen like Christian in office. I cannot think of a more qualified person for the job in the perilous times we find our country in.”

Momentum for Christian’s candidacy is building everyday as he travels the state spreading his message of protecting the free-market principles that have made our energy boom possible.
